

Plead and Pay & Pay After Going to Court

Use Plead and Pay to plead guilty and pay certain traffic tickets online without having to appear in court. If you prefer not to pay through Plead and Pay, please refer to the options on your ticket. If you desire to plead not guilty to the charge(s), you must appear in the court designated on your ticket.

How to Get Started

Search by case number or litigant name to find your case on Case.net. Once you have found your case, click Plead and Pay to see your fine and court costs. If you click Plead and Pay to see your fine and court costs, you are NOT pleading guilty. You must complete the entire process and receive a final confirmation of your guilty plea and payment.

Certain conservation, traffic and watercraft citations do not require a court appearance and use a statewide uniform fine schedule. To find out more information regarding your citation, search Case.net.

Pay After Going to Court and Been Found or Plead Guilty

Use Pay By Web to pay balances owed on disposed cases. Disposed means you have been found or plead guilty on a criminal or traffic case OR there is a final judgment on a civil case. Payments typically will be posted within one business day.

Instructions for Post-Court Payments

Payments must be received within 30 days following your court date to prevent a time payment fee from being charged. Payments made in accordance with a court-approved payment plan are due on the agreed upon date. If the court has not received your payment within 30 days following your payment due date, your payment plan will be sent to debt collection and your Missouri income tax refund could be withheld to pay toward your balance due.

1. There is a convenience fee charged per transaction when payment is made by credit card, debit card or e-check.
2. Payments are made using the following link: <https://www.courts.mo.gov/pbw>
3. Once you access the case information you would like to pay, click the "Pay By Web" link to proceed to the payment information screen.
4. You can search for your case using litigant name search, the filing date, the case number, or the hearing date. Click one of these links to select a search method. When searching by name, enter the court location, last name, then click "Find." For best results, enter the optional information to narrow the search.
5. Upon locating your case, a "Pay By Web" link will display under the case information. Click the "Pay By Web" link and then select the correct party to the case. Click "Pay Selected Case."
6. The next screen verifies the case information and allows for entry of payment information. After all payment information has been entered, click "Continue." If you wish to print additional receipts, enter e-mail information so an e-mail confirmation will be sent to you.
